Interview With Seniors

Donna Fogwell, a popular fun-loving Senior was interviewed this week by the Dragontales reporters. In answer to the first question on the list, Donna replied that she liked tall, rather heavily built boys, spicy foods, and sports cars. She enjoys playing the piano, as the last lunch shift can testify. She sings well and enjoys it. And our Donna has a secret crush on Mr. Elder, but don't dare tell!

When asked the opposite question, she said she disliked conceited people, hick farm boys, pigs (the four-legged kind), people who think they can sing and can't, and finally prejudiced people. That's a very varied list, Donna!

Born in Chester Pennsylvania on Oct. 19, 1947, she moved to Still Pond at the age of five months and lives there still.

Donna wants to become a registered nurse and then join the WAVES. Her great desire is to travel around the world, and will have a good start on her trip to California this summer.

Here's a bit of advice from Donna to all girls 5'9" and over; "Don't worry, it's not worth it." Best of luck, Donna from Dragontales.

Have You Met . . . ?

It all began on June 23, 1947 in Frankfort, Germany. From there we follow our heroine through the wheat fields of Kansas, the Cadets of West Point (unfortunately she was too young to appreciate them at the time), the vineyards of California, and the jewelry shops of Rio, hitting Chestertown on the rebound. When we finally caught our breath enough to ask some questions, her response was overwhelming. She says she likes "everything" - from swimming, sailing, boating, and skin diving (in un-shark infested waters) to singing, plays (you've seen her often) and furniture and jewelry.

About the only thing she doesn't like are those universal aversions - homework, and getting up before 9 a.m.

She has a desire to attend college - maybe at Gettysburg or William and Mary, but her next plans are not definite.

What does she think? That people are the most interesting things on earth.

In case you haven't guessed who our fair lady is -- she's Eren Learman and she's a real hep Senior.

Who is he? Why you know! Those twinkling eyes; that flashing smile - that's Paul Bowman! Vital statistics? He was born in Dover, Delaware and will admit to having reached the venerable age of 17. The specific date for birthday greetings is July 5, 1947.

What does he like? Well, you asked for it! A condensed list would have to include money, girls, and sports. These in the order named, and if you would like a longer list, underline basketball, lacrosse, and track.

What doesn't he like? Homework. He is such a strange boy. And failure and baseball, and mathematics (especially trig).

What are his future plans? Why he plans to attend East Carolina College and study law. Now you remember -- that's Paul Bowman.

Sports

The girls team is as follows: Clara Jane Benjamin, Elizabeth Crowding, Ethel DeCoursey, Dorothy Dierker, Carole Edwards, Joyce Gipe, Holly Goodman, Susan Jackson, Susan Morris, Laura Richards, Kendall Russell, Chris Kimble, Connie Lambert, Diane Meyer, and Sue Smith. Managers: Jill Brace, Candy Brace and Lynn McLain.

Cheers For Chestertown High

Dear faculty, you know we don't really mean it, but students we do mean that it's time for you to learn your cheers and prepare for the oncoming basketball season, which really looks pretty good for C.H.S.

The cheerleaders have already been chosen. They are as follows: VARSITY - Kathy Chilcoat (captain), Helene Edwards, Barbara Noerr, Jane Thoma, and Terry Willbank.

JUNIOR VARSITY - Bonnie Or (captain), Laura Davis, Phyllis Hudson, Jenny Moore, and Toni Willbank.

We not only have two good squads of cheerleaders, we also have a large group of boys who are all trying to do their best to be good representatives of our school during the 1964-65 basketball season. I'm sure Coach will do a good job of putting together two promising teams.

But no team can be victorious without the support of the rest of the students. For your convenience the Dragon Tales has printed the most popular cheers which will be used during this 1964 - 65 Basketball season.
